Bulletin Advertising

The BULLETIN is the association's premier publication focusing on practical and useful information that features law enforcement articles on professional development, legislative issues and goals, new items, and goods and services of interest to the membership. Reviews and reports are submitted by members and other knowledgeable law enforcement personnel or experts. The BULLETIN is published by the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association. All ads are on a first-come, first-serve basis from the date payment is made.

- A printed hard copy is sent once a year (Fall edition in September) to those who subscribe: 270 subscribing members
- Digital copies are emailed each quarter to PCPA members: 1,000 members
- PCPA members have permanent access to the Bulletin archives section of the PCPA website, providing advertising longevity
